
1982 ALTERNATIVE GUIDED HIKES

#1) SQUARE LEDGE BIG WALL CLIMB
June 14-17, Pinkham, Difficult.
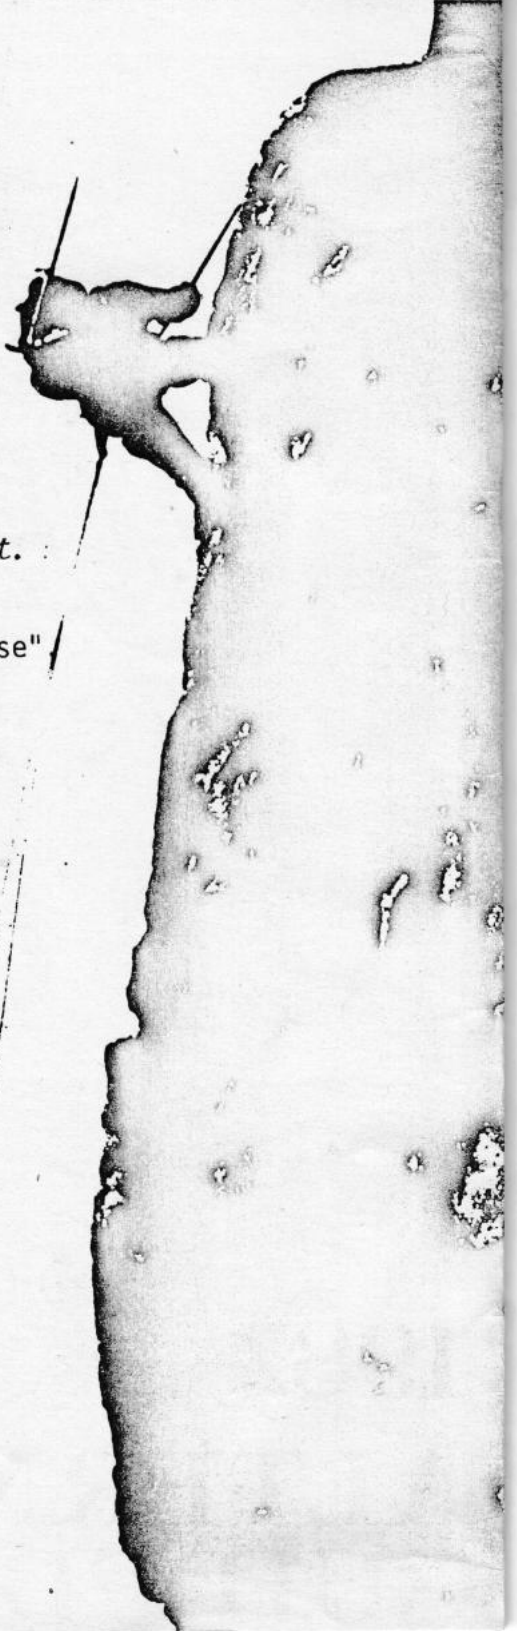
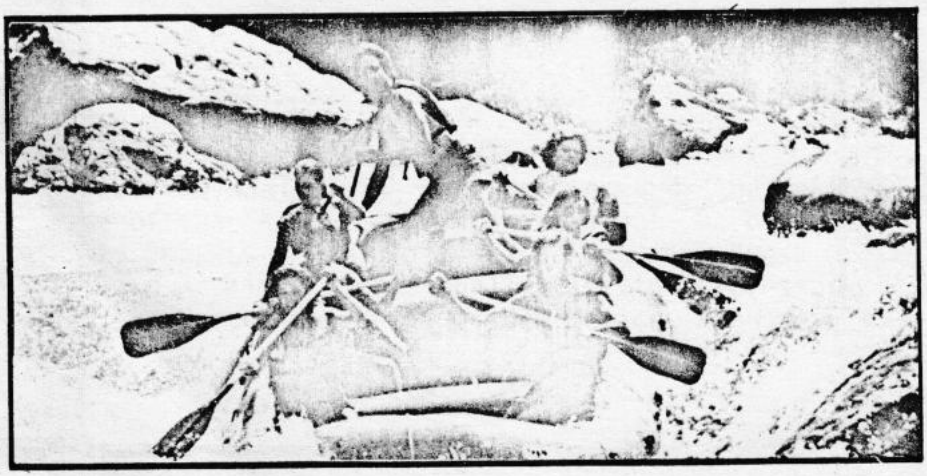
Three day ascent of this awesome big wall, via the famed 5.11 route "Wings, Please" Only veteran climbers with extensive experience need apply.

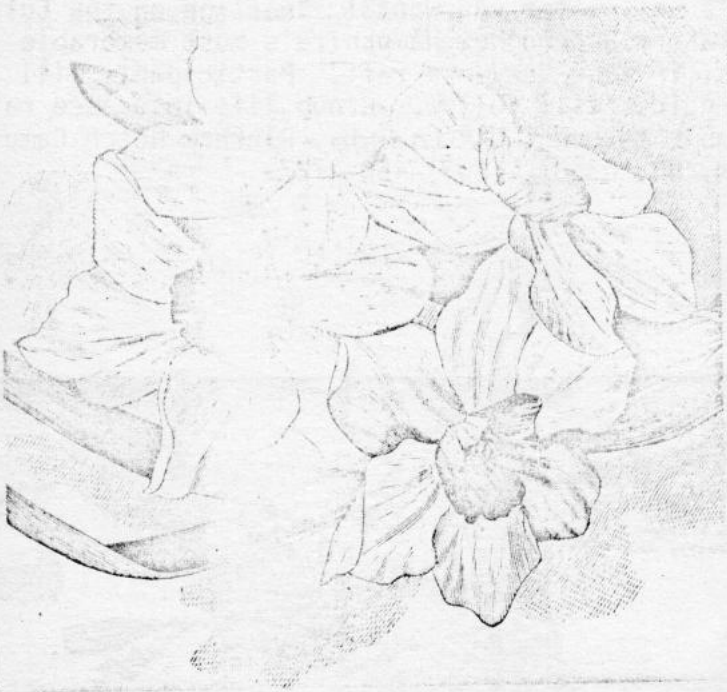


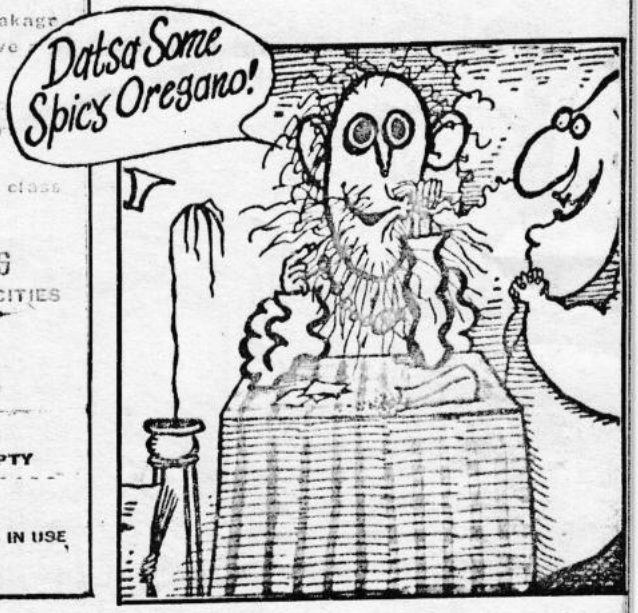
#2) RAFTING ON THE CUTLER
June 20-21, Tuckerman Ravine/Pinkham, Very Difficult. So it's whitewater you want?! "Rafting on the Cutler" will take you down New Hampshire's most memorable rapids, in your very own raft. Participants will lead, guides will follow. Group life insurance rates available through: L.Dinardo, Pinkham Notch Camp, Gorham, NH, 03581, (603) 466-2727.



#3) ALPINE GARDEN WALK

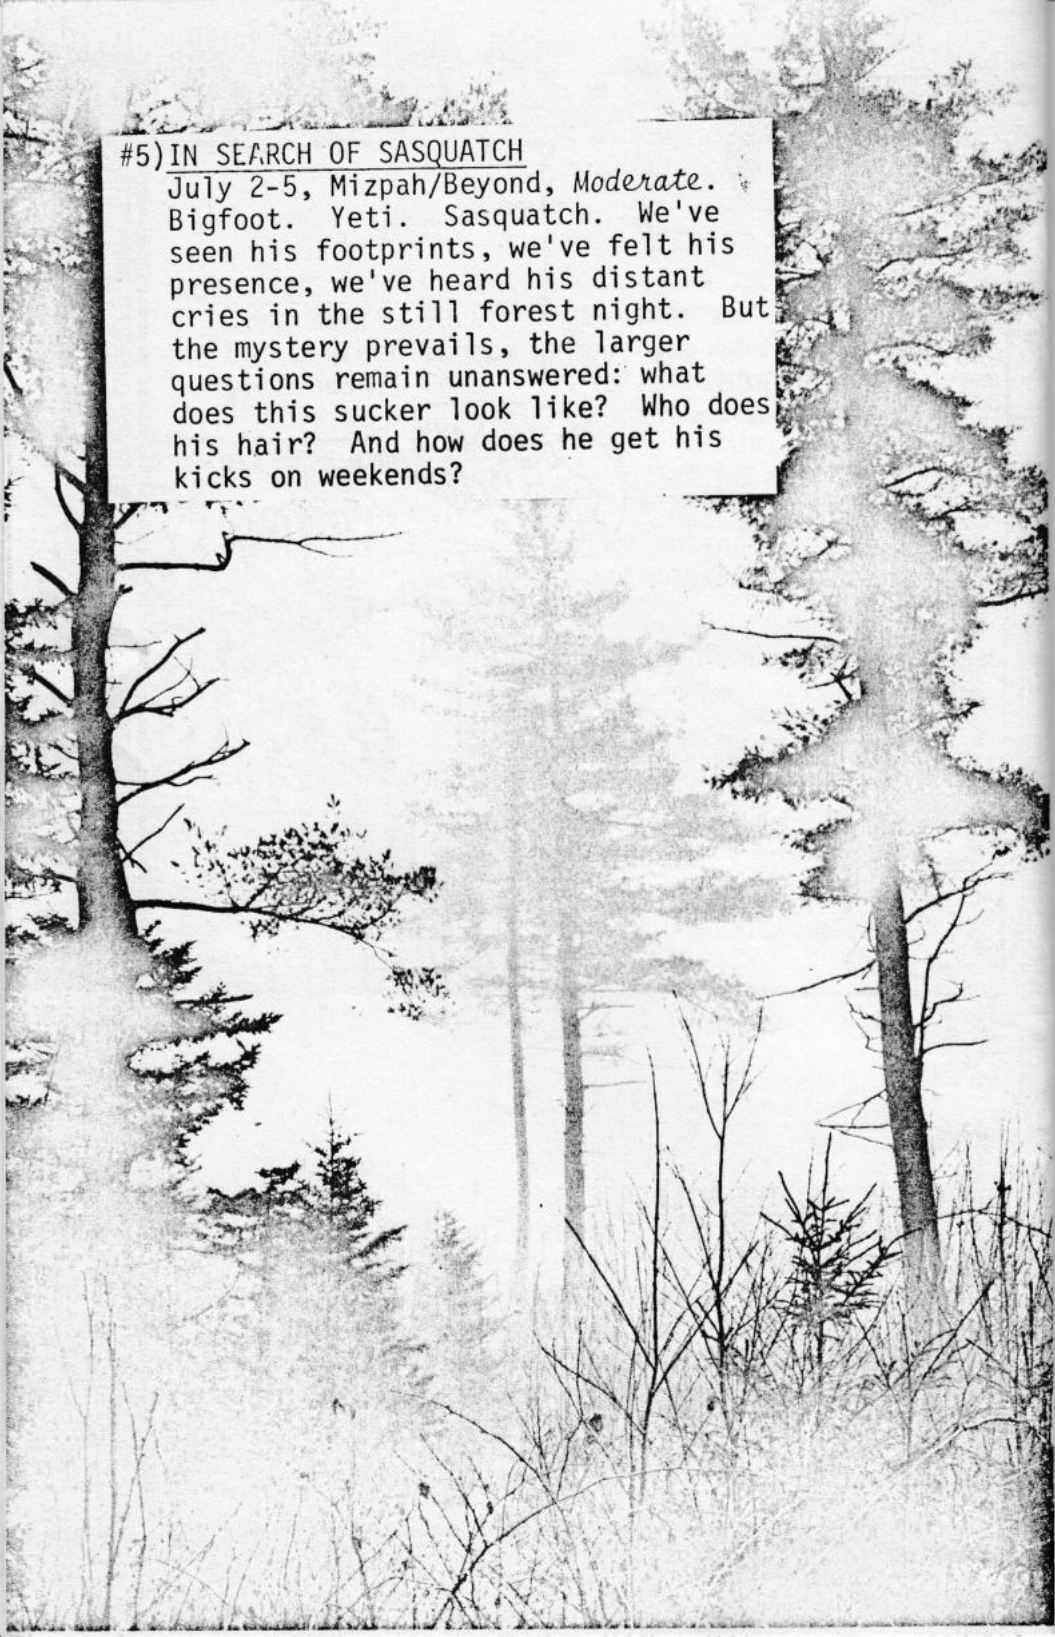
June 22-24, Tuckerman Ravine, Moderate. Got a green thumb? Then take it out of your nose. Good. Now that you have a little savoir faire, panache, elan, and at least three other french words, how would you like to learn the fine art of Alpine Gardening. We will cover: pruning, grafting, and transplanting your Alpines. Lawn mowers and pinkham shears will be supplied.





#4) DRUGS AND THE WILDERNESS

June 22-24, Carter/Everest/The Moon, Easy/Piece of cake. No recreational doping here, as we study the serious side of spacing-out. Mushrooms, ergot, herbs, and funky enzymes--- we do it all. Featuring Guest Guide Richard R. Timco, Occasionally Visiting Professor of Applied Narcotics, Univ. of New Mexico, Albuquerque.



#5) IN SEARCH OF SASQUATCH

July 2-5, Mizpah/Beyond, Moderate. Bigfoot. Yeti. Sasquatch. We've seen his footprints, we've felt his presence, we've heard his distant cries in the still forest night. But the mystery prevails, the larger questions remain unanswered: what does this sucker look like? Who does his hair? And how does he get his kicks on weekends?

#6)MT. DISSOLUTE
July 8-10, Galehead, Easy.
Four day bender under the tree of your choice.
B.Y.O.B.
"He is not drunk, who from the forest floor,
Can rise again and drink some more;
Yet he is drunk who prostrate lies,
And cannot drink, and cannot rise."

#7) SUN & FUN AT LONESOME LAKE

July-18-25, Lonesome Lake, Easy/Sleazy.

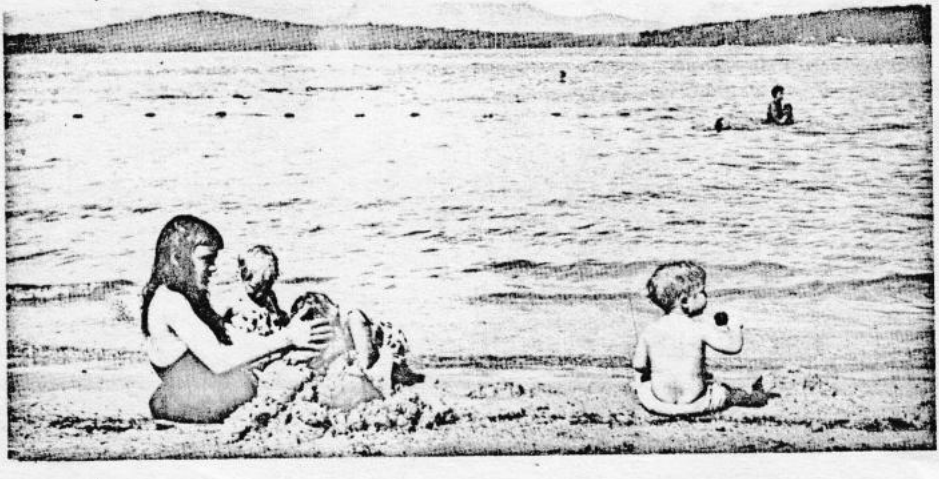
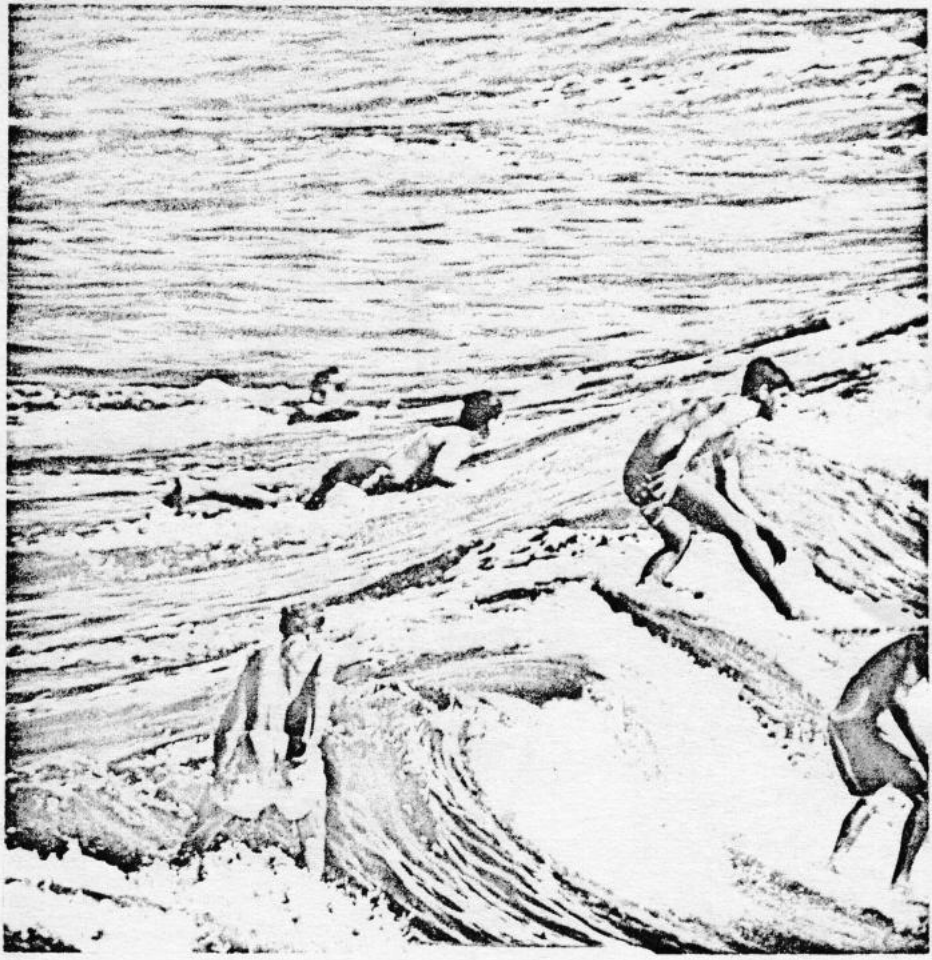
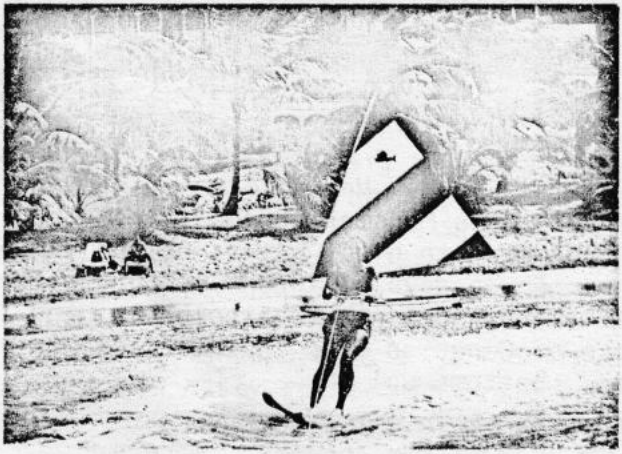
Come and enjoy the tranquil beaches and eternal sunshine of this fabulous fun forgotten paradise, tucked away in New Hampshire's own Franconia Notch. Bring your sand-pail. Bring your tanning cream. Discount Coupons now available for our Haelth Spa and Disco. Drinks half-price from 4-8 PM in our Castaways Lounge. Surfs up!







CYPRESS GARDENS

#8) ABNORMAL MARINE BIOLOGY

July 13-15, Lakes-of-the-Clouds, Moderate.

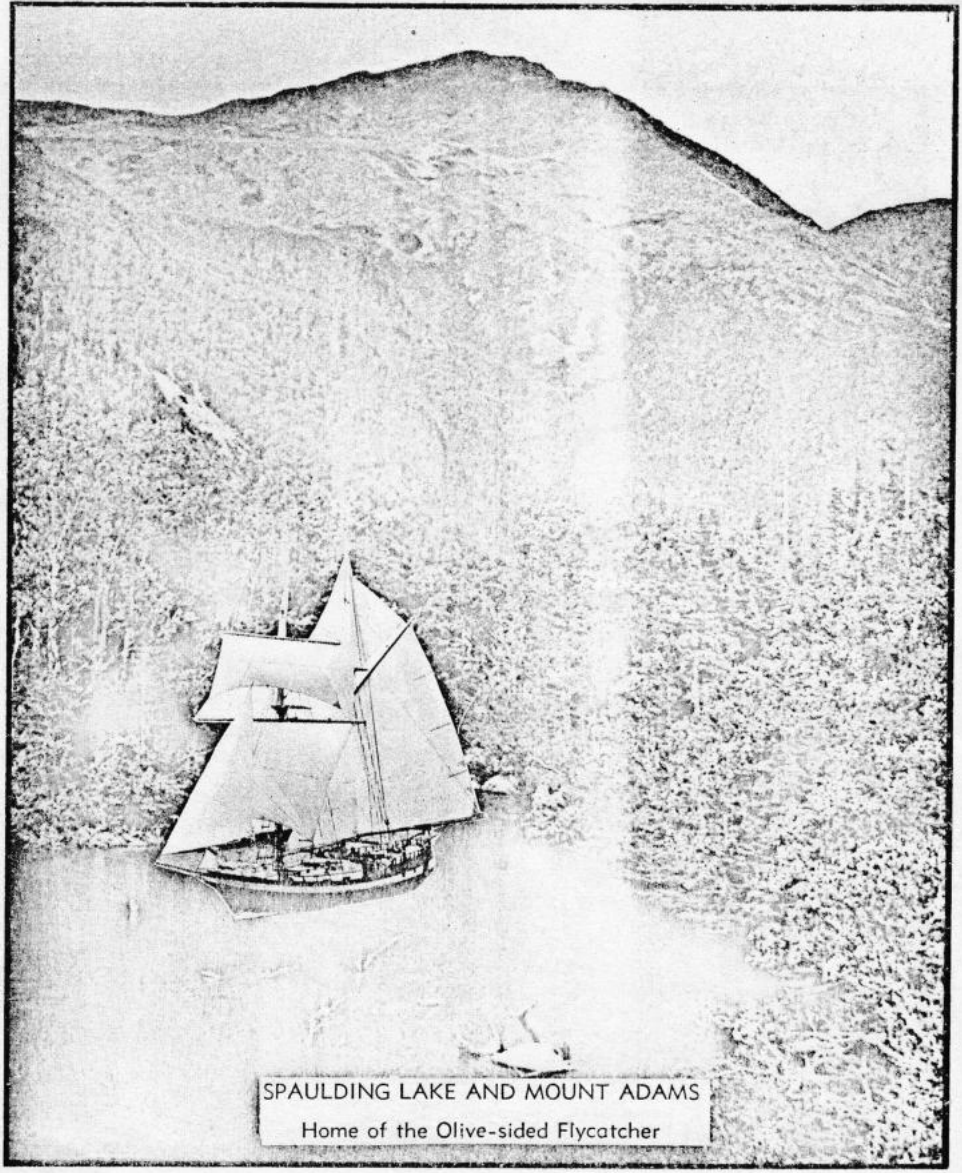
Some folks say the Loch Ness Monster couldn't meet the mortgage payments and moved to bluer waters on the slopes of Mount Washington. Three days of intensive underwater sleuthing may tell; using scuba gear, bathosphere, and long straws. A case of Canadian Club to the first man with a decent photo. Bottoms up!



SPAULDING LAKE AND MOUNT ADAMS
Home of the Olive-sided Flycatcher

#9) SAILING ON SPAULDING LAKE
Aug. 1-15, Great Gulf, Moderate.
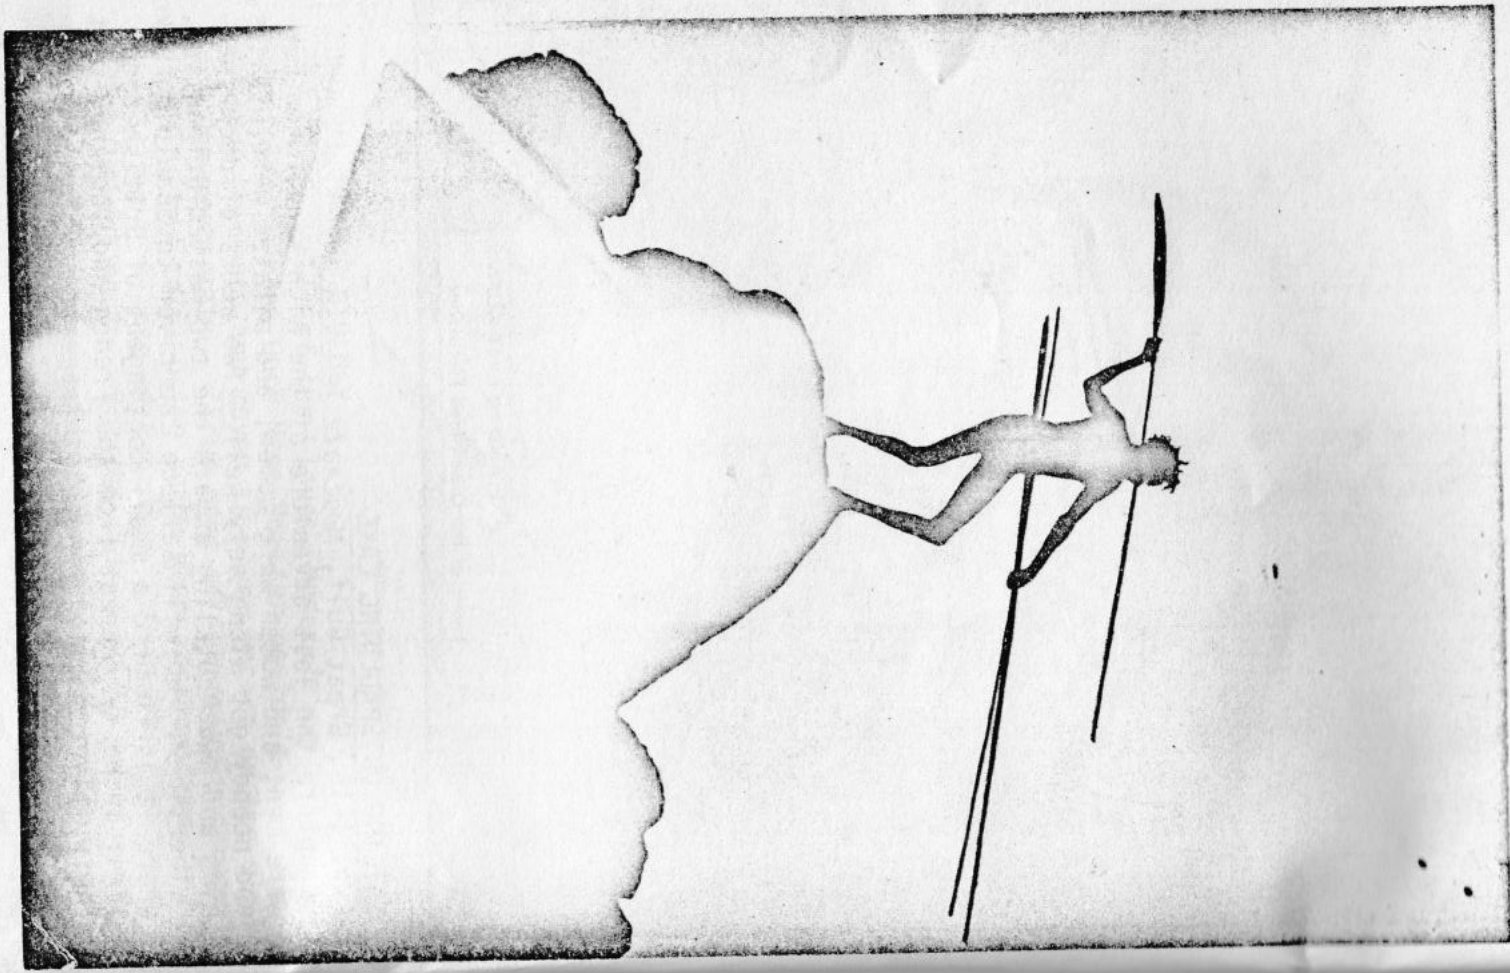
Recapture the lost adventure of the high seas, when men were men, and women were women, and pirates were pirates, and nobody got along very well. Two weeks of deck-swabbing and swashbuckling aboard the two-masted Brigantine, "Libertine". We will sail up the river to Spaulding Lake where it is rumored a small contingent of British regulars, in hasty retreat from the French and Indians, cast their silver spoils. Swashbuckles extra.



#10) GOOFER HUNTING
July 11-12, Pinkham, Fun.
Join us on the roof of the T.P. for pina coladas and open season on Two Legged New Hampshire Goofers. Just like hunting big game! 10¢ a shot; three for a quarter.

#11) HYPOTHERMIA WORKSHOP

Late October, Mt. Lafayette, Easy/Effortless. "Learn by doing" is the catchword for this late-fall participatory workshop. Come as you are (t-shirts and sneakers preferred), and leave if you can. Popsicles will be provided.
