To register and indicate your preferences for the event's components, please click here here and fill out our registration form. The event's organizers need the information, including any dietary restrictions, to establish head counts for the several parts of the event that need them. Thanks in advance.

Meanwhile, for those who might like to stay overnight in the area, many options exist. We have set aside a block of rooms at the Highland Center that includes a few private rooms and several types of dormitory-style accommodations. For information about them and to make reservations "on your own", contact the Center at 603-466-2727 and refer to Group # 605828.

Other options in the area can be found via the Mt. Washington Valley Chamber of Commerce at www.visitwhitemountains.com as well as via online reservation services such as TripAdvisor (etc.).

Note that for those unable to attend, we will establish an online memory book. Details on that later. And finally, if you have questions or need more information about the event, you can contact the event's organizers at the email addresses below. Both will be glad to help.
